

MOUNTAIN SHEPHERD ADVENTURE SCHOOL

SURVIVAL ESSENTIALS - FAMILY COURSE

Any parent navigating parenthood will probably admit that the family unit can feel like a wilderness at times! While numerous parenting books attempt to help parents navigate this foreign land, many find that their children do not fit the simple molds found in such books. If you are looking for a unique way to bond with your children, and in turn strengthen your family, enroll your family today in this two day and one night camping experience. Over the course of your family wilderness adventure, you and your family will develop better camping skills through hands-on experiences. The seven priorities of survival will serve as the foundation upon which your adventure will rest, so you will explore positive mental attitude, wilderness first aid, shelter, fire craft, signaling, water, and food. Enroll today to begin to create a memory your children will keep close to their hearts.

Day 2 will also involve a short hike to the campsite to continue the survival training, with the option to do a little hiking on the property on the way back to the Lodge.

Who Chooses This Course

Outdoor experience levels do not matter. We have families with no experience, to occasional weekend hikers, to families that spend a lot of time outside.

Everyone learns valuable information in this course. You will leave prepared to help yourself and others while on any adventure.

Course content is geared for kids 8 and up.
